No price was given out, but the deal represents about $25,000. The business was established here ten years ago next May by Mr. and Mrs. Martin. Both have been indefatigable workers since that time, the result of their labors being one of the very finest equipped laundries in Connecticut and a splendid business. Starting in a very small way, they gradually expanded their enterprise until it flourished in a surprising way. Such constant attention to business, however, has been a strain on both however, has been a strain on both of the proprietors, especially Mrs. Martin, and upon retiring they are to take a long rest. Whether they will remain in Danielson permanently has not been decided, but they are to be associated with the business until such time as the new owners have such time as the new owners have thoroughly mastered the details of managing it. There are to be no changes in the laundry force, all of the skilled workers remaining.

END OF DEER CASE

Supt. John E. Crampton Pays Attorney Charles L. Torrey Damages and Costs Amounting to $599.38.

The final chapter in the famous Torrey-Crampton case has been written. Superintendent John S. Crampton, New Haven, of the state fish and game commission, has paid the damages assessed against him in the superior court here early this fall and the costs to the plaintiff in the case, Attorney Charles L. Torrey, receiving $599,38. The jury's award was $500.

The history of this case has been followed for more than a year with probably more interest than has probably more interest than has been bestowed on any case that has developed in Windham county in a number of years. The incidents that led up to it took place on the afternoon of Saturday, November 22 1914, when a deer that had been wounded by some person whose identity has never been discovered was found dying in the highway near the farm property of Attorney Torrey of this city at Putnam Heights.

The deer's presence in the highway was brought to Mr. Torrey's attention by a neighbor whose horse was frightened by the dying deer. Mr. Torrey with employes of his removed the deer from the highway as a danger to traffic, taking the carcass to his barn, where it was dressed.

During the early evening the fact

During the early evening the fact that Mr. Torrey had the carcass at his farm came to the attention of County Game Warden Arthur Day of Killingly and a then special protector of game, E. E. Kies, of Danielson. They went to Mr. Torrey's place and demanded the carcass, Mr. Torrey refusing to give it up. Telephone conversations between Mr. Day ani Mr. Crampton, in New Haven, followed, Mr. Day finally attempting to arrest

Automobile Driven by H. Harrington of North Franklin Crashes Into Trolley Car-Calf in Automobile Killed-Movie Photographer About,

An automobile owned and driven by H. Harrington of North Franklin struck a trolley car near the Pleasure Hill crossing about 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. With Mr. Yerrington at the time of the accident was Harry Levine of Colchester. The side curtains of the automobile were down and it is thought these prevented Mr. Harrington from seeing the approaching trolley, and the automobile struck the car with considerable force. Neither Mr. Harrington or Mr. Levine was seriously injured. One of two calves which were tied in the rear of the automobile was damaged. A small house used as a waiting room at the crossing was considerably damaged by the auto being thrown against it.
